SIMFEROPOL
SUMMER 2013

"Fight and you will prevail"

"Kick out the bandits"

"Euromaidan Crimea (see glossary)"

"See glossary"
What's going on here? Who are these people? Why is Kyiv not reacting?

We need to get Crimea back.

Come to the park tomorrow and bring your friends.

How can I help?
Did you hear that they kidnapped the coordinators of Euromaidan Crimea?

We cannot trust the local authorities anymore, they’re no longer on our side.

That means we’re next.

What shall we do? Who can we turn to?

And Kyiv keeps silent. No one helps us.

We’d better leave straight away.

*See glossary
I need to go. Not for very long, maybe two weeks.

At university...

I will pass all the exams as soon as I am back.

* Train ticket Simferopol-Lvov

As long as I have not left Crimea, I am not safe.
For now, you can stay with me. Choose a sofa!

Help for Ukrainians from Crimea. Emigration, housing, food
Let's all get together, we need to support one another.

I met some others from Crimea here.

I'm from Bakhchysarai.
I'm an entrepreneur.

I'm from Feodosia,
I'm a lawyer.

I am a teacher from Yalta.

I come from Yevpatoriya,
I work in a shop.
At the registration office...

You migrants are only here for the money. Return to Crimea, there is no shooting there.

I can't go back, they will arrest me.

What for?

They consider me a "Banderist*", because I supported Ukraine.

But we can't help you.

You won't get a passport here. You are from Crimea.

Crimea is Russia!

Crimea isn't part of Ukraine anymore!

Everywhere I am considered a stranger. In Crimea they call me an enemy because I am pro-Ukraine. But here is no place for me either.
As time passes, Natalia’s mother is questioned again and again by the Russian Security Service FSB.

We know that your daughter lives in Lvov. What is she doing there?

How are you?

These three years have been a nightmare. And it doesn’t seem to end. Tell me, how are you?

Everything’s ok.

I’ll find my place. And I’ll get a cat.